There were sixteen cases on the police court calendar this morning and most of them were sent over till future dates.

President Pfotenhauer of Hackfeld & Co., left for the other islands today. He will visit all the plantations of which Hackfeld & Co. are their agents.

Rev. Stephen L. Desha of Hilo is in town, having arrived this morning on the Mauna Loa from Kona. He will probably return to his Hilo home next Friday on the Clauline.

A. D. Castro and M. G. Silva left for Maui and Hawaii this morning on the Mauna Kea to familiarize themselves with the condition of the Portuguese laborers in plantations. It is expected that as soon as their reports are received by the Territorial Board of Immigration, Silva will proceed to Portugal to look for more plantation laborers.

This afternoon at ten minutes to two a hurry-up call was sent to the police station, and the ambulance was sent out to the corner of Punchbowl and Queen streets, where it was found that a small Filipino boy had fallen from a height of twenty feet and was injured internally. The child was taken to the Queen's Hospital for treatment and admitted.

SPENT MONEY FOR JOY RIDES

After being married less than one year, Annie B. McGowan asks for an absolute divorce from her husband George, who, she alleges, has failed to support her and in addition has spent a large amount of her money in riotous living.

On August 5 of last year the ceremony was performed which made the couple man and wife, and ever since that time George, so his wife alleges, has not tried to get work and has depended upon herself and her parents for support.

In addition, George induced her to sell a piece of real estate for $2000, and he obtained possession of the proceeds of the sale, which he dissipated in riotous living and automobile riding, often being away from home for weeks at a time.

On May 27, the complaint states, he came home with a revolver and threatened to use it upon his wife and her mother.

They made their escape and were followed to a neighbor's house, where the husband was overpowered and the revolver taken from him.

Before the district magistrate at Ewa, McGowan was found guilty of assault.

The direct grounds upon which divorce is asked are cruelty and failure to provide.

and alterations which, before completed, will cause the loosening of Uncle Sam's purse strings to the tune of nearly three hundred thousand dollars.

Quartermaster-Captain Bond is in charge of the office on board the troopship.

The list of passengers carried by the Sherman is said to be the smallest carried by an army vessel since the service was organized. Seventeen casualties are traveling in the storage.

Among the passengers of prominence en route to army station are Lieut.-Col. C. G. Woodward, from the Coast Artillery Corps, to take command as court defense officer of the artillery district of Manila; Lieut.-Col. Walter L. Finley, to return to his regiment, the Thirtieth Cavalry; Lieut.-Col. F. S. Strong, detailed as adjutant-general of the Department of Luzon; A. E. Bradley, to the Medical Corps, and Maj. Geo. Pickett as paymaster; Maj. G. E. Saffarans, detailed to the Philippine Scouts; Capt. S. O. Ham, to the Twelfth Infantry; Lieut. J. E. Abbott, to the Second Cavalry; Lieut. Luke B. Peck, recent graduate of the Army Medical School, and Maj. C. C. Ballou, from the quartermaster-general's office, to unassigned duty.

Gen. C. S. Roberts, retired; Miss Jane A. Delano, superintendent of the Army Nurse Corps, and Mrs. E. J. Timberlake, wife of Capt. Timberlake, commandant at Fort Ruger, Honolulu, also arrived on the Sherman.

The Sherman brought twelve cabin, two second-class and twenty-eight steerage passengers to Honolulu. Twenty-seven casualties for the United States army were among the arrivals.

On July 8 the Sherman spoke the transport Sheridan, and at that time was effected the transfer of a dozen stowaways who had endeavored to beat Uncle Sam out of transportation to San Francisco.

The stowaways were sent from the Sheridan to the Sherman, and are now again enjoying the delights of balmy Hawaii. The vessel sails for Manila at 8 o'clock Thursday morning.

ALLEGED BURGLAR IS COMMITTED

This morning at the police court Lum Sung, the one armed Chinese who told Chief McDuffie all about the robbery at an Alea store, waived examination, and was sent on to the Circuit Court. Lum confessed to everything, and told how he, Soon Duck and a Porto Rican, had stolen a lot of goods from the store.

Soon Duck is well known to Lum, and he says that as soon as the robbery was finished Soon went off with one bag of goods and left him the other. No trace has been found of the Korean, who usually pretends to be a Japanese, and travels around the country as one.

SAFE BURGLAR IS STILL AT LARGE

So far the man who took the safe from the house of Ching Lum on Sunday night, has not been discovered. A young Chinese who was suspected of the crime has accounted for his movements during the whole of Sunday night, and he seems to be innocent of the burglary.

The jewelry has all been listed with the police, and comprises a lot of bracelets, rings and brooches. Descriptions of the jewels have been sent all over the islands and a sharp look out will be kept for anyone who may try to sell some of the trinkets.

SHARES BY THOUSANDS

There has been a veritable rush for the small stocks in the last twenty-four hours and it is by no means finished.

Olaa is keeping a lead in the amount of stock sold but McBryde came in yesterday afternoon as a very strong second. Over two thousand shares of McBryde sold at 6 and the market closed today at an advancing figure.

Nearly two thousand shares of Olaa were sold between boards and on the Exchange this forenoon the market was strong and advancing at 6.50.

The cause for all this is the good reports from these properties and the easy condition of the money market.

A great many people see the opportunity to get good sized blocks of these cheaper stocks and lay them away for investment. Both these plantations are "making good" after long struggles. Olaa is cutting down its expenses, getting better cane returns and increase in its crop. McBryde is solving its water problems and reducing the expense of producing each ton of sugar. These conditions tell for investors, and they are at the bottom of the upward movement.

Honolulu took a decided slump this morning for some unknown reason. Over two hundred shares sold on the Board at 18.75, which is considerably lower than the recent sales.

Good reports on the world's condition of sugar came in the circulars this morning, and on the whole the local situation looks brighter than it has for some time past.

PROHIBITIONISTS PROMISE LIQUOR

The Territory and can well be astounded at the example of attempting to secure the votes of the Hawaiians by advice that if they really desire liquor they can secure it from the mainland.

The circular states specifically that there is nothing to prevent the poor man of small means from saving up his money until he gets enough together to enable him to secure liquor in cases, just as the man of means would do under the operation of a prohibition law.

This astonishing example of what Woolley means by a prohibition law for Hawaii is supposed to be an answer to the statements that a prohibition law for Hawaii would in effect amount to class legislation.

In brief, this circular informs the Hawaiian people that they can save their money under the regime of a Thurston-Woolley law and obtain liquor from the mainland.

SUPREME COURT CASES ARGUED

There are three cases set for argument before the Supreme Court this week, two being on the calendar for tomorrow and one for Thursday morning.

Tomorrow morning the case of Mary Richards vs. Carl On Tai et al. comes up for argument. This case is up to the higher tribunal upon an appeal from the judgment of the lower court.

In the afternoon an appeal in the case of G. Segelken vs. Charles W. Booth et al. will be argued.

Thursday morning arguments will be heard in the case of R. H. Makakau vs. S. Kane et al., which has been brought to the Supreme Court on exceptions.

WATERFRONT NOTES

AFTER THREE weeks spent at Honolulu the trim Belgian training ship L'Avenir sailed late yesterday afternoon with her destination as San Francisco. This vessel and her staff of officers proved a welcome addition to the port. Both officers and men were afforded much opportunity of visiting the important points of interest in and about Honolulu. The vessel arrived here on June 17th with a shipment of about three thousand tons of Australian coal. This fuel has been left at the local yards, The Belgian ship goes to San Francisco in the hopes of securing a charter.

ONE HUNDRED and sixteen sacks of mainland mail are included in the shipment brought to this port by the Pacific Mail liner China. Sixty-six sacks are intended for the Philippine islands and will be transferred to the United States army transport Sherman, which vessel proceeds to Manila by a shorter route than that covered by a transhipment at Hongkong.

A WIRELESS received last night from the Oceanic steamship Sierra now enroute from San Francisco and due to arrive at Honolulu on Friday morning gives that vessel's position as 1256 miles from Honolulu, northeast winds; moderate sea; barometer, 30.30; temperature, 65.

The Molliou, left Santa Cruz at 10:55 a. m. on July 5 and was given a great send-off by a big crowd of people. W. S. Ward, in writing of the affair, states that the Molliou got quickly under way and made good time down to San Pedro.

That the Molliou is considered to have a good chance in the race is evident from Ward's letter, and his brother feels confident that with favorable winds the yawl will make a name for herself.

The Molliou is 54 feet over all, 38 feet water-line, 14 feet beam and draws 8 feet 6 inches, being a keel boat. On the trip to San Pedro she was in command of Commodore Louis Ward of the Aeolian Yacht Club. The rest of the crew consists of William Johnson of the bark Andrew Welch, Frank Parkport of the Corinthians, William Craig, Walter Schroeder, Fred Fredericks, John Russell and a cook.

W. S. Ward, who for years was manager of the Keauu store at Olaa, Hawaii, is now on the mainland, but takes the greatest interest in all that pertains to Hawaii. His brother, L. T. Ward, is sailing the Molliou in the transpacific race, and, from all accounts, hopes to do well in the event.
